“THERE IS A FORCE OF LOVE MOVING THROUGH THE UNIVERSE THAT HOLDS US FAST AND WILL NEVER LET US GO”. (JULIAN OF NORWICH)

The Cloth presently on the Altar was design ed by Fr Henry O’Shea O.S.B. and was commissioned by our flower group. The deisgn is influenced by the artist Matisse and his work in the beautiful chapel in Vence in the South of France.

It is Fr Henry’s interpretation of the gospel parable the vine and the branches. The blue cloth represents the vine and can also be seen as representing the magnetic force of love.
Some are already embedded in it and are witnesses to God’s presence and mercy. Some are drawn to the message and the source and others pull away and there is a cohort outside the force but are attracted to the believers.
